2018

STICKBALL

The camp is open to all students ages 8 to 18.

Stickball has always been an exciting and competitive game played by many tribal people of the Southeast and has always been an important game to the Choctaws.

Students will be taught the fundamentals of stickball by teaching the history behind the game and how it is important to Choctaw culture. The youth will be taught how to throw, catch, and score a goal in the Choctaw style. Social and exhibition types of play will be taught as well as the rules and field positions for each.

Instruction will be done by Coaches from the Choctaw Nation Stickball team with assistance from skilled local players. This is a day camp on the grounds of Tuskahoma. All campers will receive lunch and drinks each day of the camp.

Participants will be offered bus transportation on designated bus routes.
